Spaulding—On Wednesday, Nov. 28, 1900, a young life drew to its close and left a vacancy in the home circle that no other can fill. Henry Michael Spaulding, son of Mr. Henry and Mrs. Elizabeth Spaulding, died at the age of 20 years, 10 months and 29 days, and, while his days on earth were short, to those who loved him, yet they have the happy assurance that they can spend a long eternity with him in Heaven. He was sick three weeks. No effort was spared to make him comfortable. Several physicians were called but He who is Allwise saw fit to take him away. On Friday morning at 11 o'clock funeral services were conducted by Rev. H. M. Polsgrove, after which his remains were laid to rest in Antioch cemetery. His grave was beautifully decorated by Mesdames Jennie Robertson, Hallie Sacra, Cordia Chism, Fannie Miles, Misses Annie Smith, and Lizzie Brawner, Messrs. Sandy Hale and Oscar Clark. Mich. was a good boy, endeared to all who were intimately acquainted with him. We hated to give him up. His life was so brief. But we know the "Lord doeth all things for the best." He was his mother's joy and his father's pride, and there is a desolate cry that cannot be hushed and a longing for a touch of the vanished hand and sound of the voice that is still. God was good to let them keep him nearly twenty-one beautiful years, and his life, though short, was like a gleam of sunshine that vanished in its brightness. Let's wait till the glad day breaks and the shadows flee away. He leaves a father, mother, four sisters and two brothers, and a host of relatives and friends to mourn his loss. We expect to meet him on the other shore.

When the angel of death, with quiet tread, Silently entered the dear homestead, Which has broken our Happy Ridge band, To bear the precious soul to better land. Weep not, dear parents, for your dear son, Death's struggle is over and his work is done; For none of us should weep. He is not dead, he is only asleep. He shall wake on the judgment day, When we shall meet him just over the way. Our pierced hearts in anguish cried That grace sufficient might be supplied, And patience given each stricken one To say "Thy will, not mine, be done." Of boys and girls we number twenty-eight, I hope we'll number the same at the beautiful gate.

COLD STEEL OR DEATH.

"There is but one small chance to save your life and that is through an operation," was the awful prospect set before Mrs. I. B. Hunt, of Lime Ridge, Wis., by her doctor after vainly trying to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. He didn't count on the marvelous power of Electric Bitters to cure Stomach and Liver troubles, but she heard of it, took seven bottles, was wholly cured, avoided surgeon's knife, now weighs more and feels better than ever. It is positively guaranteed to cure Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles and never disappoints. Price 50c at J. W. Gayle's drug store.
